SIX KILLED IN BOMB BLAST IN BARROOM

By PAT MCNULTY

Los Angeles (AP)—A makeshift gasoline bomb turned a quiet neighborhood bar into a funeral pyre for at least six persons shortly before midnight.

The coroner said six persons died at the scene on a quiet street in south central Los Angeles. At least five others were injured.

Police said the bomb apparently was thrown through the front door of the Club Mecca by three men who had been ejected earlier when they tried to dance with one of the cocktail bar's regular women customers.

Asst. Fire Chief R. A. Williams said the men sloshed a bucket of gasoline, or some other highly inflammable liquid, onto the floor and then threw a match in after it.

"It went up like a blow torch," said the bartender, Larry Fenton, 24, who escaped uninjured out the back door.

Others weren't that lucky. One male customer was found on a nearly melted corner barstool, leaning slightly backward against the shattered front wall. Two charred bodies were found in one of the cafe's four booths. Another was on the bar floor.

The only woman victim ran screaming into the street, clothes ablaze. She died soon after, near the body of another victim.

Two other customers escaped the flames by running into a restroom and were rescued by firemen.

Inside, the small cafe was a blackened ruin.

The three men who threw the bomb escaped in a car amidst a barrage of gunfire from a passerby. Vernon Waggy, 24, told police he was walking down the street when he saw the men running.

U. S. Has No Plans To Fill "Vacuums" In Britain Defense

by JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

Washington, (AP)—Diplomatic and military officials reported today that the United States has no plans to fill any "vacuums" which may be created by Britain's announced intention to cut back its military forces.

The reduction program, announced in London yesterday, is regarded in official quarters here as an unhappy but unavoidable result of Britain's need to cut costs.

The net result, it was generally agreed, will be a weakening of the available security strength of the free world although this effect will be offset in some degree by providing greater firepower for the smaller British forces, partly with U. S. aid.

The United States, has already committed itself to provide the British with 1,500 - mile - range guided missiles as soon as they become available.

The eventual establishment of missile bases in Britain with atomic warheads stored nearby under American control — will give the British a striking power against Russia which they have not heretofore had.

Army Engineers Discuss Power Potentialities of Kinzua Dam

By JOHN KOENIG JR.

Special Washington Service. Washington, (AP)—U. S. Army Engineers indicate today that although they believe provision for power facilities at the proposed Kinzua Dam in Northwestern Pennsylvania is "not economically justified," they are not ruling it out.

Brig. Gen. J. L. Person, assistant chief of engineers for civil works, said water power potentialities of the reservoir to be created by the 125 million dollar dam on the Upper Allegheny River currently are being reviewed.

Person's remarks were made in reply to questions put to the Army

House Committee Informally Approves Extra Appropriation For Post Office Department

Washington (AP)—The House Appropriations Committee today informally approved a 17-million-dollar extra appropriation for the Post Office and agreed to consider next Friday a request for 30 millions more.

Implied in the committee's action was an understanding that the department would not put into effect tomorrow sharp service curtailments which Postmaster General Summerfield had said would be ordered if extra money was not provided at once.

The department has requested congress to give it an extra 47 million dollars for the next three months. An appropriations subcommittee approved 17 millions of the request last Wednesday.

Summerfield said that was inadequate, and announced that starting tomorrow he would order such steps as to halt city and rural mail deliveries on Saturdays and stop selling money orders.

He has said unforeseen expenses stemmed from increased mail volume and the need to serve expanding residential areas.

When the Appropriations Committee met today to consider the annual money bill for the Commerce Department, most Republicans and some Democrats favored immediate action on the Post Office funds, but a motion to consider the matter was ruled out of order.

Last night, Summerfield sent a telegram to Chairman Cannon (D-Mo) of the House Appropriations Committee asking him to "expedite urgently the action and report of the Appropriations Committee to the House so that if further funds are voted they will be available before too much damage is done to the service."

Finally, however, after a reportedly tempestuous session, the committee agreed to notify Summerfield he could count on at least 17 million dollars and that the committee would consider how much more, if any, to give him at a meeting next Friday.

Chairman Cannon (D-Mo) told newsmen it would be up to the full committee to decide how much money to appropriate. Indications were that a majority of members favored more than 17 millions although not the entire 47 millions Summerfield seeks.

Members favoring formal action today were unable to muster the two-thirds vote necessary to suspend the rules so the committee could consider other matters. However, they had a majority that prevented adjournment until a compromise was worked out.

Cannon said the decision finally made was taken by voice vote and had "a good majority." The decision was made on a motion by Rep. Rooney (D-NY), who said he favored the full amount of the request.

In his telegram, Summerfield said that "with total reluctance" his department is planning to curtail postal service to meet the cut "imposed" by the subcommittee.

Summerfield has said that unless more money is assured, he plans to order, effective tomorrow, a halt in Saturday mail deliveries in cities and rural areas, and a reduction in deliveries to city business districts, discontinuance of money order sales, and other service cutbacks.

Clinton, Tenn., Teacher Takes Position in Gotham

New York (AP)—David James Brittain Jr. is retiring as principal of Clinton, Tenn., High School, and to teach part time.

His wife Clarice, a home economics teacher at the Clinton school, will teach at a New York City public school.

Dean George W. Stoddard of New York University's School of Education announced yesterday that Brittain had accepted a teaching fellowship effective Sept. 1, and will work for a doctoral degree in school administration.

Stoddard said:

"Mr. Brittain was tested as few school persons have been tested during the difficult situation with respect to integration in the schools of Clinton, Tenn.

Saturday Noon Tests Of Sirens Are Planned

The time is rapidly approaching when it will be difficult to sleep past noon on Saturday in Warren Borough.

Civil Defense air raid warning sirens have arrived. One is already in place on top of Warren Bank and Trust Company, the other will be installed in the near future (probably about three weeks) on a special pole to be erected by Penelope near Fairchild-Rapp on Pennsylvania avenue, west.

At exactly noon each Saturday, the "Thunderbolt" siren and the smaller West Side warning device will be test blown, according to David Levine, borough CD director.

Cut Approved In Department Of Commerce

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

Washington (AP)—The House Appropriations Committee today slashed 25 per cent from President Eisenhower's requests for new Commerce Department funds.

The committee recommended $653,685,060 in new appropriations for the department and related agencies for the fiscal year starting next July 1. This was $217,827,940 less than Eisenhower requested and $68,950,076 below appropriations for the current year.

The committee apparently was mindful of what happened on its last bill, financing the Labor and Welfare departments. It cut 118 million dollars from that measure only to have the house itself slash off an extra 15 millions. Still another 53 millions tentatively cut by the House was restored on roll call votes yesterday.

The commerce department measure was the sixth annual money bill sent to the house this year by the committee and shoved well over the billion-dollar mark the aggregate cuts in appropriations requested by the President.

The only agencies for which significant program increases over 1957 were recommended were the Civil Aeronautics Administration, the Census Bureau, the Patent Office, the Public Roads Bureau, the Civil Aeronautics Board and the Weather Bureau.

Bureau Says There Is No Danger of Flooding in State

The all-day, all-night springtime rains, which fell with a cypso beat yesterday, dumped 1.21 inches of precipitation on this vicinity but no flood even suggested itself. Allegheny River behaved itself at a mild 5.3 feet this morning (up from 4.9 feet Thursday), as much of the total precipitation still lay around in the form of snow. Predicted showers today will have the weather picture back into a sunny, snowless landscape in plenty of time for Easter Fading April 21st.

By The Associated Press. Western Pennsylvania's two main rivers—the Allegheny and Monongahela—rose slightly today in the aftermath of yesterday's heavy rains, but the weather bureau at Pittsburgh said there was no danger of flooding.

Early today at Pittsburgh's "Point" where the Allegheny and Monongahela merge to form the Ohio, the rivers were at 17.8 feet and rising slowly. Flood stage is 25 feet. The Weather Bureau predicted last night the rivers would crest at about 18 feet, well below flood stage.

In the upper reaches of the Allegheny at Warren, the river rose to five feet early today, less than a foot above yesterday's stage and well below the 14-foot flood mark.

STORM TOLL IN COLORADO TOTALS EIGHT

By FINIS MOTHERSHEAD

Denver, (AP)—Towering snow drifts blocked travel again today in east central Colorado and the southeast corner of Wyoming.

Winds up to 60 m. p. h., back-lashing from a storm which dumped paralyzing snow two days earlier, churned blinding ground blizzards late yesterday.

The snowstorm toll mounted to eight deaths in Colorado.

Farther south in Colorado, fresh dust was stirred high in the air despite the drought-denting moisture only 48 hours beforehand.

Giant rotary snowplows carved a path through fresh drifts so patrolmen could lead a stalled convoy of 40 cars the last 16 miles into Cheyenne from the west over U. S. Highway 30. Another group of 25 cars was led past deep drifts on U. S. 85-87 at a point seven miles south of the Wyoming capital.

Crews were laboring trying to reopen half a dozen major routes northward from Cheyenne and Laramie, Wyo., between those cities and in Colorado eastward from Denver and Colorado Springs.

Preparations were made for delivery of a baby expected by Mrs. John Faris, 33, at a Buford, Wyo., crossroads store, but her race with the storm proved less close than expected.

Her husband cushioned a boat with blankets and towed it through deep snowdrifts with horses to get Mrs. Faris to Buford after a snowplow was unable to reach their home. Conveyed by another plow, she was driven 24 miles through a ground blizzard to Laramie.

After spending the night at a hotel, she planned to board a train to Cheyenne—the opposite direction from Buford—so her doctor could deliver the baby at a hospital there. U. S. Highway 30 between Laramie and Cheyenne was blocked by two huge snowdrifts.

Farther west in southern Wyoming, a snowbound mother gave birth to twins, assisted only by her husband. One of the infants died.

In eastern Colorado, travel was halted in both directions from Limon, where 1,500 motorists were marooned the weekend of March 23 by another spring blizzard.

London (AP)—The defense for Dr. John Bodkin Adams rested its case with dramatic suddenness today and appealed to the jury to free the 58-year-old society doctor accused of murder.

Cairo, Egypt (AP)—The newspaper Al Ahram said today U. N. Undersecretary General Ralph Bunche and Egyptian officials have agreed that no barbed wire barriers or minefields will be placed along the Gaza Strip's borders with Israel.

London (AP)—The United States was reported to have advised 14 of the main Suez Canal user nations today it has failed thus far to secure any major revisions in Egypt's plans for running the waterway.

Tokyo (AP)—Major Japanese newspapers today expressed sorrow editorially at the suicide of Canadian Ambassador Herbert Norman and bitterly criticized what they called the "Red witch hunt" in the U. S. Congress.

Second Block of 100 Student Tickets Made Available for Pittsburgh Symphony Concert

Officials of the citizen's committee working for the appearance of the Pittsburgh Symphony in Warren next Wednesday have announced that another block of 100 student tickets have been made available. The first group of 150 student admissions were sold out and there has been a demand for additional tickets at the special price of $1.00.

The committee spokesman announced also that there were still 200 adult tickets available and should be sold to assure a capacity audience for this great musical treat.

The Manufacturer's Light and Heat Company is paying the expense of bringing the orchestra to Warren and the committee has decided that the ticket sale proceeds should be given to the swimming pool fund and the youth center administered by the Warren Recreation Board.

Warren is one of only five towns which are privileged to have a concert by the Pittsburgh Orchestra this year at no cost to the community. The sponsors are hopeful that area citizens will back the project 100% and fill Beatty Auditorium for the program which will no doubt be the musical highlight of this and many other seasons.

Concrete Railings Are Being Placed on Overhead Scene of Fatal Accident in Dec., 1953

Pennsylvania Highway Department, at long last, has begun to erect concrete railings on the railroad overhead just east of Youngville. The cement parapet will replace flimsy pipe rails of questionable safety value.

Action on the project was triggered just after Christmas, 1953, when a Corry couple died of injuries sustained Christmas Eve when their car tore through the pipe railing, plunged 50 feet to the railroad tracks.

A coroner's jury, empaneled by Warren County Coroner Ed C. Lowrey, gave this verdict: "We, the members of the jury, feel that even though the road surface was slippery, the direct cause was the inadequate railing on this overhead bridge and, at this time, we recommend that the proper county officials petition the Public Utility Commission of Pennsylvania to issue an order directing that an adequate cement railing be erected to replace the present inadequate pipe railing now in use."

H. D. Haupin died Dec. 26, Mrs. Kiebert of Meadville is contractor for the job which should take about three weeks and $10,000. Traffic will be maintained.

The job had been let about six months ago but the contractor at that time withdrew his bid.

A similar fatality brought about concrete railings on the first overhead west of Warren. Those railings used to be just pipe also, until an Erie family crashed through in the early 1930's, killing three members. A coroner's jury at that time also recommended that concrete railing be erected, which (they were) but not before another car crashed through, fortunately with no fatal results.

In other highway department activity, Chester Walker, Warren County superintendent, reports that his men have just completed a $13,000 bridge on Legislative Route 61058 which is on the dirt road that veers from Route 6 just west of Youngville Borough limits.

Queen Mary Steers Clear Of Home Port on Trip Back

Cherbourg, France, (AP)—The Queen Mary sailed for New York with 1,100 passengers today after a trip to Europe on which she steered clear of her home port of Southampton.

The 81,000-ton Queen Mary docked at Cherbourg Monday, by-passing Southampton, where 1,124 of her passengers had expected to land. She kept out of the British port because of a blacklisting by British shipyard workers. Union leaders took the action on grounds repairs to the luxury liner were not completed when Britain's shipyard strike began and the liner began her previous trip to New York with the help of government tugs.

The Cunard Line spent some $84,000 to ferry passengers and crew members back and forth and to fly food and other supplies from Britain to Cherbourg.

LEADER ATTACKS INDUSTRIAL EXEMPTIONS AS PROVIDING 'INEXCUSABLE PREFERENCES'

By LEONARD A. UNGER

Harrisburg (AP)—Gov. Leader allowed to become law today. Republican plan keeping the sales tax at 3 per cent and giving a new tax break to manufacturers, utilities and shippers.

He said the industrial exemptions in the new law constituted a "multi-million dollar giveaway" and merited a veto.

He did not veto, Leader said, because Republicans had moved to accept strengthened enforcement provisions proposed by the State Justice Department.

The law went into effect automatically at midnight. The legislation was sent to Leader's desk 10 days earlier by the Republican-controlled legislature.

In a 600-word statement given to newsmen 4½ hours before the midnight deadline, Leader attacked the industrial exemptions as "inexcusable preferences" for what he said were "certain favored groups."

It makes unwarranted concessions to a handful of favored interests and in this manner sets business against business," the governor said.

George I. Bloom, Republican state chairman, praised the governor for rising above partisan consideration.

He took the position that the sales tax will produce enough revenue without putting "a hobble on much needed industrial and business expansions."

There has been no official estimate on how much the industrial exemptions will cost. Republicans say the overall sales tax yield will be between $80 to $90 million dollars. Democrats say the figure is closer to $400 million.

Shortly after announcing his decision, the governor signed into law measures retaining for another two years the cigarette levy at five cents a pack and the gross receipts tax on public utilities at 14 mills.

They are part of what the GOP described as a "no-new-taxes" package of nearly a billion dollars passed by the legislature and sent to the governor.

Still awaiting action are measures continuing for another two years the corporate net income tax at 6 per cent and the real estate transfer tax at 1 per cent.

A gubernatorial veto of the sales tax would have meant the 3 per cent levy, enacted 13 months ago, would have dropped to 2 per cent June 1 and that the stamp plan for its collection would have been retained.

The system, suspended by a (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Automobile Ferry Is Stranded in Mackinac

St. Ignace, Mich. (AP)—The automobile ferry Vacationland, stranded in an ice jam in the Straits of Mackinac for 18 hours with 66 passengers aboard, went on a mud bank in a heavy fog today.

The 360-foot vessel was 100 yards off her dock at Mackinac City when she hung up on the mud bank, just outside a channel leading to her slip.

F. P. Case, assistant superintendent of state ferries, said the Coast Guard icebreaker Mackinaw, most powerful ship on the Great Lakes, was expected to free the Vacationland "pretty soon."

But he did not fix the time in hours.

The Mackinaw had gone to the stranded ship's rescue several hours earlier.

Case reported the 66 passengers had been fed two hot meals and were "nice and warm."

Borough Council to Open Bids For Paving of Seven Streets

Warren Borough Council at its regular monthly meeting Monday night is due to open bids for paving of seven streets and resurfacing of Fourth Avenue, total projects to cost a sum estimated in the neighborhood of $100,000.

Some $90,000 of the amount will go for paving Hazel from Fourth to Fifth; Lexington from Parker east; Ludlow from Pennsylvania to Allegheny; Madison from Grant to Marion; McPherson from Conewango to Hill; Plum from South to Lexington; Seneca, St. Clair to Wayne.

Additional bids will cover costs of resurfacing Fourth Avenue from 300 feet east of Market to Beech Street. Should the bid be lower than expected, or extra monies be found, the resurfacing would be continued to West Side Pennsylvania Railroad tracks, according to a discussion at the March Council meeting.

Other bids should be received from companies interested in resurfacing Warren Airport east-west runway. This project has been estimated at $10,000 with Council and Chamber of Commerce each paying half.

Public Service Committee is expected to issue a statement on its attitude toward Warren Water Company's request for Public Utilities Commission for a 40 percent rate increase. Pennsylvania Gas Company was just recently granted a $694,397 annual rate boost and Manufacturers Light and Heat Company approximately $2,500,000 annually.

Need for More Classrooms Is Urged by Ike

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

Washington (AP)—President Eisenhower, stressing need for more classrooms, says America's schools are "more powerful even than the energy of the atom" and more important than guided missiles.

The President put it that way last night in a new appeal for congressional approval of the administration's school construction program.

In an address at the centennial dinner of the National Education Association and to a nationwide radio audience, Eisenhower linked school training of the nation's youth to the quest for enduring world peace.

"The hope of the world," he said, "is that wisdom can arrest conflict between brothers. I believe that war is the deadly harvest of arrogant and unreasoning minds."

Bleak Conditions Cause Two Mishaps Within 12 Hours

Five cars were involved in two separate accidents last night and this morning, sustaining property damage of an estimated $1,050.

At 8:05 p. m. yesterday near American Legion curve on Pennsylvania avenue, Charles Barr, 45, of 209 Market street, cut the curve too sharp as he headed west, sideswiping an eastbound vehicle piloted by Alan C. Honhart, 44, of 351 Pleasant Drive.

The Barr machine sustained $100 damage, the Honhart car, $200. Barr was cited for failure to yield the right of way.

The second mishap occurred at 7:35 a. m. today on Route 6 near Route 59 leading to Kinzua east of Warren.

Isaac Slack, 41, of 8 Mill street, Sheffield, was heading west on Route 6 when he slowed for traffic turning right onto Route 59. James Hillman, 32, of Kane, slammed into the rear of Slack's vehicle.

An instant later, Merle Hartman, 37, also of Kane, slammed into the rear of Hillman's car.

Slack vehicle sustained $50 damage estimated, the middle vehicle $500, and end vehicle $200.

1000 Workers Are Engaged in Cancer Crusade in County

More than 1000 volunteers of Wright, Frank Ferrin and Edgar Pendleton.

Mr. Wright declared, "As far as cancer is concerned, we are much more hopeful. This would not have been possible without the generous support of the American people in past crusades."

"The funds they have contributed have enabled researchers to better the cure rates of many kinds of cancer through improved methods of diagnosis and treatment."

"But there are vital scientific frontiers in cancer which have yet to be explored. There are projects awaiting support that could evolve into more new methods for reducing deaths from cancer."

"If we can make our goal locally, we will be helping to put scientists to work on problems which must be solved if we are to save more lives tomorrow," Mr. Wright declared.

C Day for the House-to-House Crusaders will be April 23. Under the over-all direction of James Wright.

Future Teachers in Youngsville Have Interesting Trip

Youngsville — H. H. Husted and Edward Turchan provided transportation Wednesday for Youngsville Future Teachers of America visiting Grove City and Slippery Rock State Teachers Colleges.

Taking advantage of the opportunity were LaVaughan Loomis, Maxine Danielson, Doris Dale, Carol Toner, Barbara Soback, Grace Ann Locey, Janet Wilcox, Anna Marie Zolko. At Slippery Rock they saw YHS friends, Richard Sherwood, Nancy Tuley, and Bill Ochenschlager, and at Grove City, Jo Carol Davis.

Lady Gray Rebekah Lodge met Wednesday evening and welcomed a new member, Mrs. Lillian Brooks, from the Hydetown Lodge.

After routine business, cards were played, high prize in Canasta going to Mrs. Ethel Tuley, low to Mrs. Mildred Anderson. In Five Hundred, Mrs. Maye Hoover won first prize, and Mrs. Lora Young, low. Refreshments, served by a committee consisting of Mrs. Irene Haton, Mrs. Sagrid Johnson, and Mrs. Mildred Jones, concluded the meeting.

Mrs. C. C. Johnson entertained Brokenstraw Birthday Club Wednesday afternoon. Eight members and one guest were present to help Mrs. Mary McPherson celebrate her birthday. An informal social time followed the business meeting, lunch was served by the hostess. Mrs. Hettie Tilling will entertain the club next month.

On Monday evening, YHS Junior High Chorus will sing in the festival at Eisenhower High School, along with other students of the county. They will be directed by Harvey Horn.

Also on Monday evening, the Boy Scout Recognition Dinner will be held in the EUB church dining room, with a program to follow in the sanctuary.

Saron Ladies Aid will sponsor its annual Lenten Tea Wednesday at the church.

Don Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Agnew, has written home that he was one of 40 who lunched with President Eisenhower on board the Canberra, on which ship Don is assigned.

MAIL VOLUME UP
The nation's mail volume will hit close to 60 billion pieces a year by June 30, up 15.35 per cent since 1953, Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield said today. Volume this 1957 fiscal year is expected to be at least 58,770,000,000 pieces, about 346 pieces, on the average, for every person in the United States. The 58.7 billion piece mail load will be more than half a billion pieces above earlier estimates, and compares with 56,441,000,000 pieces during the last 1956 fiscal year. The 15.35 per cent increase since '53 has been handled with a reduction of all types of employees except the city letter carriers needed to make the actual delivery of the increased load.

ON DEAN'S LIST
Mr. and Mrs. John S. Champion, 17 Bauer street, have received a congratulatory letter from Dean John G. Adams of Duquesne University in Pittsburgh, stating their daughter, Barbara A. Champion, has again placed on the Dean's List for outstanding academic achievement in the School of Pharmacy. The dean's letter adds this is a fine honor and distinction achieved by the young lady in her profession. Barbara is a member of the Student Branch, American Pharmaceutical Association; Lambda Kappa Sigma Sorority; and is also employed in the University Library.

CHEST TO BUY BUILDING
Allan S. Wright, president of the Erie County Community Chest, has announced that the Chest will buy the former Erie Times building at 110 West Tenth street in that city. The Chest plans to house its offices and the offices of several of its member agencies there soon. Pointing out that the present Community Chest building is in "deplorable condition," Wright added that the cost of maintaining the 100-year-old structure has become prohibitive. Stressing the fact that the move to new quarters will effect important economies in the operation of the Chest and its agencies, Wright pointed out that plans for the new building include the relocation of several Community Chest agencies which are renting space.

Bible Words for Today

I KINGS 20:11 — "Let not him that girds on his armor boast himself as he that puts it off." (RSV)

It is almost ironic that one as foolish as King Ahab should be the author of such a classic bit of wisdom. His admonition leaves very little place for boasting. It is certainly wise to refrain from indulging in big talk when one girds on his armor or begins an enterprise. To boast then may lead to embarrassment and shame if one loses the battle or fails in the enterprise. The need for restraint at this point is readily seen if not always followed.

What is not so apparent is that one, even if successful, probably will not feel like doing much boasting when he takes off his armor. By that time, he will have gained respect for the enemy; he will remember many errors and failures that mar his record; and he will realize that his success depended a great deal upon the help received from others. Thoughtful veterans brag little.

The Sad $120,000 Story of Teddy Nadler

TEDDY NADLER BONES UP ON THE WORLD: What he wants to remember, he remembers

By DICK KLEINER
NEA Staff Correspondent
New York (NEA)—Now $120,000 later, Teddy Nadler wears a neat brown suit and a handsome tie and eats roast beef (well done) in a fancy New York restaurant.

But the memory wizard of "The $64,000 Challenge" wasn't always in such good shape. In fact, he has been a tough life.

"I'm not trying to gain your sympathy," he'll say, "but don't let anybody tell me any sad stories. I can top them."

The odds were pretty good that Teddy Nadler would never amount to much. A father who couldn't work, an invalid mother and a bad speech impediment got him off to a slow start. He spent two and one-half years in kindergarten—"all that happened was the kids would give me chewing gum and make me count to three, just to hear me say 'one, two, tree.' I still have a slight impediment—I always say Red Tross girl, for example."

But then he went to an orphan's home and, at eight, he was put in first grade. There he first showed the remarkable memory that has made it possible for him to buy a house, take care of a sick sister and father, and maybe send his three sons to college.

Before his semester in first grade in St. Louis was finished, he'd read "Ivanhoe" through. And what's more, he recited the story back to his amazed teacher, who promptly let him skip second grade.

After eighth grade, he had to go to work. And work was a succession of bad breaks.

"There was always somebody's relative or some politician who got the good job," he says. "I did everybody's work but somebody else got the job. In those days, I didn't know how to butter people up."

He worked for a shoe store. The first day, he memorized the names and numbers of all the styles and all the branch stores—96 in all (He still remembers them.) It didn't do him any good. He worked for a hat company and performed more memory stunts, again to no avail.

There were times when he and his family were poverty stricken and he walked four miles to and from work. There were heavy hospital bills—he remembers them down to the last penny. And there wasn't much fun in life.

His in-laws laughed at him. "They had no interest in anything academic," he says. "I bet they couldn't even name three states in the Union. All they cared about was playing cards. That's a waste of time."

But he plugged along, from one job to another, doing well but never advancing. And he had no time for his real loves—reading (there still isn't a book in the Nadler home) or music (he wanted to learn to play the piano but his mother-in-law sold it) or history or mythology. He just worked.

Everything he'd read as a child, however, stuck. He says his memory seems like a no-man's-land to him, even though others look on him as a mental freak. Anything he wants to remember, he can remember. He's particularly fond of statistics—"numbers are easy"—and can remember statistical things, like batting averages, without any trouble at all.

And so, when the era of the inflated quiz show arrived, Teddy Nadler was ready. First, he challenged two Hartford, Conn., brothers, the Eigans, on a general category on the program. They tied at $64,000, netting him $32,000. Subsequently, he himself has been challenged on a variety of subjects and, to date, he's pocketed $88,000 more.

The program's producers want him to meet three new challenges—on the subjects of boxing, American history and music (the one he's lost so far)—but have yet to Teddy, himself, seems to think it'll be tough to find anyone who can stay with him on American history.

"I've talked to a lot of people," he says, "who are supposed to know history. Teachers, students, that sort of thing. I try to carry on a conversation with them, but none of them knows anything about it. I mention the simplest little fact and they don't know it. It's sad."

His phenomenal memory is often a help to him in other than prize-winning ways. He can remember shopping lists and income tax figures and license plates and phone numbers. He can even remember all the questions he's been asked on the program so far.

"Are you kidding?" he says

"Sure, I can remember every question I was asked. And the answers, too."

Now, with his prize money in the bank, he hopes to have a little time to relax—which, to him, means mostly listening to classical music. He thinks he can live happily ever after, providing the people let him live.

"I've had 20 million phone calls and letters," he says. "I was nice to the first 10 million, but it gets to be hard. I like the money, but I wish I could have inherited it instead of having all this notoriety."

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q—I am planning to sell my house and let the buyer take over my GI loan, provided VA will release me from liability. Once I receive my liability release, would I automatically be entitled to another GI loan?

A—No. Obtaining a release from GI liability does not entitle you to another GI loan. The only veterans whose GI loan entitlement may be restored are those who must dispose of their property for certain compelling reasons such as condemnation by the Government or ill health.

Q—Is there any deadline for applying for disability compensation for a service-connected disability?

A—There is no deadline. You may apply at any time. However, if you file your application within one year following your discharge from service, the payments may be made retroactive to the day after your discharge, providing your disability was compensable at that time.

Q—I have a Korean GI term insurance policy. Will I get dividends on this policy?

A—No. Under the law, Korean GI insurance is non-participating; it does not pay dividends. However, your premiums are lower than the premiums for GI policies that do pay dividends.

Q—I lost my sight in the Korean conflict, and I am planning to take vocational rehabilitation training. Will VA provide me with reader service?

A—Yes. Reader service may be provided if it is necessary for the successful pursuit of your vocational rehabilitation. The number of hours of service will depend on the amount of reading required in your course.

BUILD TO BE A WINNER

April 10 at the YMCA at 7 o'clock for the first clinic in this year's series.

The winning car in local competition last year will be on display, as well as other models, shown in various stages of construction. Committee members will be on hand to help the boys with problems in building, and a movie will be shown. Dates for the Clinics are set for April 24, May 8, 16, and 22, in Rooms 5 and 6 of the YMCA.

As Skip says "It's really fun building to be a racing champion, and there's lots of BIG prizes at the end of the rainbow." "Of course, the first prize sends the winner to Akron, Ohio to race in the 20th ALL-AMERICAN SOAP BOX DERBY, plus a college scholarship, and this year, even a trip to Europe has been added. Don't give up when things go wrong, don't stop... be determined to be a winner."

Jaycee Derby Director Dana Harland adds to Skip's willingness to win, the thought that an EARLY START is important... NOW is the time to sign up for the coming 1957 SOAP BOX DERBY, at Dan's Chevrolet. Copies of the 1957 Official Rule Book are yours Free of Charge. It's easy to enter. Just be accompanied by a parent or guardian, when stopping at Dan's Chevrolet, sign up, study the rule book, design a car, build it, and enter the race. Every boy's chance is as good as the next fellow's.

Above is Richard "Skip" Crosssett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Crosssett, RD 2 Warren, diligently working on his Soap Box racer, preparing to compete in the Class A division of the 1957 SOAP BOX DERBY, set for June 29th this year.

Skip was in the running last year, having attended the special clinics for tips on constructing a winning car, and knows how valuable these sessions are for every boy planning to enter the Derby. Skip says "I really learned a lot about HOW TO BUILD A RACER and even though I placed fourth last year, I'm going right back out and try to win this time." Skip reminds all other boys who have registered for the '57 Derby, sponsored by the Times-Mirror, Dan's Chevrolet, and the Jaycees, to be on hand next Wednesday.

Mark Anniversary
Of Entry Into War

Harrisburg—Saturday marks the 40th anniversary of the United States entry into World War I, that President Wilson said he would fight "to end all wars."

"Instead of ending war," Morton Fromm, Lock Haven, state Veterans of Foreign Wars commander, points out "it changed the political face of the world; brought forth Communism and led to World War II, with all the evils these events have plagued humanity."

Veterans of Foreign Wars posts throughout Pennsylvania will observe the day in memory of the 131,000 who died in service, including 53,403 who lost their lives in battle. The wounded totaled 202,261.

Of the 4,744,000 Americans in the Great War, less than 3,000,000 are now alive. Their average age is 63 and in the year 2010, few will be living. About 90,000 are dying each year.

"In the early part of World War I," state commander Fromm said, "United States relations with England were severely strained by British seizure of American merchantmen in violation of the 'freedom of the seas' principle of international law."

"When the Kaiser ordered unrestricted submarine warfare with ruthless sinking of passenger and cargo ships without warning or rescue, President Wilson armed American ships in February, 1917 and in April war was declared."

"American forces landed in France in June, 1917 and there followed the historic battles of the Marne, Meuse-Argonne, St. Mihiel, Chateau-Thierry and others that brought the Armistice November 11, 1918—and the end of the war which was to 'end all wars'."

Although nuts of the buckeye contain poisonous toxins, Indians learned to make them edible by repeated boiling.

PORTLAND'S MAYOR POSTS BAIL—Mayor Terry D. Schunk of Portland, Ore., second from right, posts $2,000 bail after the Multnomah county grand jury indicted him on charges of bribery and perjury. Left to right are a deputy sheriff, Capt. Howard Kelly of the sheriff's office, Schunk, and bail bondsman Joe Levy. Schunk, who said he will demand an immediate trial, is charged with accepting a $500 bribe from a Portland night club operator when the former was sheriff of the county. Schunk labeled the charges, which he has denied under oath, "ridiculous."

Seventh-Day Adventist Lecture Sunday Night

"Astounding Wonders of Other Worlds" is the topic of the 7:30 p. m. Sunday lecture in the Seventh-day Adventist church, 614 Fourth avenue, described in the following church news release:

This and related lectures brings to the folk in the Warren Area an opportunity to experience the thrill of the professional Astronomer as he views the heavens with his giant 200 inch telescope.

On the special ten foot screen erected for this purpose, you will see the giant prominences of the sun (flames shooting as far as 400,000 miles into space). Also, the immense cave in the Constellation of Orion and the many other exciting revelations brought to us by the giant telescopes of recent years.

Mr. Neil, formerly of Baltimore, Md., has made a special collection of the great photographs taken through the world's largest telescopes and desires to share them with the folk of the Warren area.

Today, when much of the world is in confusion, economic and political unrest, repeated threats of war, the interruption of careers by the necessity of military training... it all brings forth the sense of insecurity. Mr. Neil says, under such conditions we all need to know the story the heavens are telling. It is a stupendous, magnificent and glorious story, yet, a very simple one. What Are the Stars Telling You?

It is promised that this and related lectures will renew your faith in God and insure you peace of mind. It is suggested that you come early and hear the special musical program arranged by Pastor G. W. Valentine, of Bradford, Minister of Music. He has arranged for John Milton and his Trio from Jamestown, N. Y. to give a 30 minute musical.

When Grandma Acts Like a Martyr, She Suffers Alone

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

MR. D.'s mother lives with him and his family.

Last summer his two youngsters got themselves jobs as camp counselors. Freed of responsibility for them, the D.'s decided to treat themselves to a South American tour. To Grandma they offered the treat of a visit to her only daughter.

She resisted the idea. Finally she said, "All right, I'll visit Milly for your sakes. I certainly don't want to stand in your way of enjoying yourselves."

The D.'s felt awful. Without question, both swallowed Grandma's absurd suggestion that their tour doomed her to a summer of misery while they reveled in Brazilian raptures.

It didn't occur to either of them to say, "But Mother, you can enjoy yourself too!" Just as the martyr in Grandma meant them to, they felt like brutes for claiming an experience she couldn't share.

A martyr is a person who is able to make his envy appear beautiful.

When we are three years old and still pure of heart, we are content to let our envy appear as it is—ignoble. If we envy a belonging of somebody else, we express our feeling directly. We grab it.

But then we begin to get the going-over which psychologists call "socialization." Often we emerge from it so subdued that we don't even know when we want to grab enviously. That's when we learn to play martyr.

THEN, if we feel envy of a child's friends, his college education, his South American trip, we make our feeling sound as saintly as possible. We express it indirectly. We make him ashamed of his joy. We say, "All right, have fun—and leave me to suffer alone." In the end, we get exactly what we've asked for. We get left to suffer alone.

That's why martyrizing ourselves is so silly.

No matter how loyal children try to be to us, they simply don't want to be around us if we make them ashamed of enjoying themselves. They sense that we are jealous, not saintly. And want to get away from our dishonesty as quickly as possible.

NEXT WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10th, WARREN WILL WELCOME THE WORLD RENOWNED PITTSBURGH SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

William Steinberg, Conductor

Warren County is indeed privileged to be visited by this great 90 piece orchestra conducted by one of the world's outstanding conductors, William Steinberg. Few communities of our size are fortunate enough to hear such a famous musical attraction in person, so let's fill Beaty Auditorium with an enthusiastic welcome next Wednesday! Remember, the cost of bringing the Pittsburgh Symphony to Warren is underwritten by the Manufacturers Light & Heat Company. Therefore, all of the ticket sale proceeds remain in Warren for the benefit of our

SWIMMING POOL FUND AND YOUTH CANTEN

A citizens' committee representing all areas of Warren County and service clubs, women's clubs, Jaycees, Chamber of Commerce, school officials, and governmental agencies has been working with the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company in planning this event. After many meetings and discussions, it was agreed that proceeds of the Pittsburgh Symphony concert should go as follows: the first $1,000 will go to the swimming pool fund; the rest of the proceeds will be used to buy needed physical equipment for the Youth Canteen. Both funds are to be administered by the Warren Recreation Board.

The citizens' committee believes that Warren residents will not disappoint the Pittsburgh Symphony, Wednesday, April 10th—that Beaty Auditorium will be filled to capacity for this musical treat that also benefits two worthwhile causes. Warren is one of only five communities chosen by the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company for a concert by the great Pittsburgh Orchestra this year. Let's show our appreciation and pack the auditorium.

The Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra which appears in concert in Warren next Wednesday evening has become the Hi-Fi darling of the world. Its recordings for Capitol Records have become in great demand in the United States and abroad, putting this 90-man orchestra at the top of classical music lists everywhere. The Orchestra began recording for Capitol in 1952 and since that time has issued thirty-four major releases for the Hollywood-based firm. Five recording sessions are scheduled for spring of this year; four major releases have been issued since the first of the year. Wherever music is played and enjoyed these days the Pittsburgh Orchestra is up in front so far as quality is concerned. ### U.S. Women Dye and Diet To Stay With the Crowd

Did you know that you are one of the unhappiest women in the world?

You didn't? Well, a group of Japanese gentlemen put their heads together in Tokyo and came up with the startling news that American women are the unhappiest women in the whole, wide world.

What makes 'em think so? They say, for one thing, that in order to humor our men we American women "have to go on diets and dye our hair."

We do fall for every new-fangled diet that comes along. And it's amazing how few women today have gray hair to show for their years.

But here is news for the gentlemen of Japan. We aren't forced into dieting and dyeing by our husbands.

We fight to hold onto youth, not so much in order to hold onto our men, as to hold onto jobs and to be able to hold up our heads among women.

I'd like to tell the Japanese gentlemen a little story which happens to be true.

A housewife who had let her figure go and her hair become streaked with gray suddenly got a dye job and enrolled in a course guaranteed to streamline the figure.

IT WASN'T ON HIS ACCOUNT

SHE didn't do it for her handsome husband. He apparently liked her as she was—a little gray, a little plump, but a happy, good-natured wife.

Why then did she decide she simply had to get rid of the gray hair and the excess fat? Why, because she was going to a college reunion, and she was determined to look as young and trim and pert as the rest of the women who were her college classmates.

That's how it is. Career women struggle against the telltale signs of age because they are competing with youth in the business world. And housewives starve themselves and dye their hair because they want to look as young as any woman in their crowd.

The men aren't responsible for the anti-age battle we American women are forever waging. It's our own doing. And truth to tell, it's kind of fun.

We would be unhappy if we were ever forced to give up the fight and look our ages.

The local gas company's safety program has earned it first place in the National Safety Council's safety contest for large gas utilities during 1956.

Employees of The Manufacturers Light and Heat Co., and its affiliated Pittsburgh Group companies of Columbia Gas System were involved in only 11 disabling accidents last year during which time they worked more than 7,605,000 man-hours.

Over 3,600 members of the Group companies helped the winning record of 1.45 accidents per 1,000,000 man-hours worked. In 1955, the Group companies finished third in the national contest.

When eating at the table don't lean over your plate. Sit with your head held high and bring the food up to your mouth instead of lowering your head to meet it half way. Strive for good table manners. If you don't, others won't enjoy eating at the same table with you.

Erskin and Spooner Discover Both Have Calcium Deposits

Brooklyn, (P) — Carl Erskine and Karl Spooner, worried and perplexed, have found out sound can make them sound again.

The two sore-armed Brooklyn Dodger pitchers learned in a hospital yesterday that both have the same trouble — calcium deposits.

Both are taking the same treatment, with ultrasonic sound waves attacking the calcium to break up the deposits.

The "nice-guy" veteran, who set a world series record by striking out 14 to beat the New York Yankees 3-2 in the third game of the 1955 classic, said the two-day hospital tests uncovered the calcium "high in the back of my shoulder, not where it hurts, but just above it. They're quite sure the pain and the calcium are related. There are three bits which weren't visible before."

Erskine, with a 113-69 won-lost mark last season, said that "while these new ultrasonic treatments are no overnight cure, I'll be pitching again before you know it."

Spooner's case is almost identical.

Light Heavyweights Meet Tonight in Detroit Ring

Detroit, (P) — It will be the slam-bang style of Chuck Spieser against the quick-fisted counter punches of Tony Anthony when the two light heavyweights battle tonight for the right to meet champion Archie Moore.

Spieser is a heavy favorite in the scheduled 12-rounder which will be televised nationally NBC-TV, 10 p. m. (EST) from Detroit's Olympia Stadium. It's the two-time Olympic battler's first "big" fight in his home town, and a victory would mean an opportunity to take on Moore in a June 7 battle in the same stadium.

Anthony has 22 knockouts to his credit in his 29-4 record.

Warren Field And Stream Narrowly Misses High Award

At the directors meeting of the Warren Field and Stream Club April 2nd, it was disclosed that the Warren County Council of sportsmen narrowly missed winning the County of the Year Award by one vote. The award went to Beaver County for the second consecutive year.

A committee composed of Dick Arnold, Gail Hansen, Tom Croier and Charles Merroth were appointed to formulate plans for the Boy Scout Conservation Contest.

The regular April 8th meeting will not be held as the Lew Klewer show will be at the Beatty Auditorium on that evening, and all members are urged to secure tickets for same.

The Warren Field and Stream Club is also sponsoring the sale of the Federation News at local news stands and sporting goods stores and sportsmen should procure a copy, to keep informed of the various resolutions and bills proposed by clubs throughout the state.

Barons To Meet Hershey In Best-of-Seven Series

Cleveland, (P) — The Cleveland Barons will go into the sixth game of the first round best-of-seven American hockey league playoff series at Hershey, Pa., tomorrow night holding a 3-2 edge.

The Barons came from behind last night to defeat the Hershey Bears, 2-1, before a crowd of 6,153 at the Cleveland Arena.

If Hershey wins tomorrow, the seventh game will be played here Sunday afternoon. The series winner will meet Rochester in the Calder Cup finals. Rochester already has reached the finals by blasting Providence, last year's champions, four games to one in the other first round series.

Burke Shoots Sub-Par Round To Take the Lead at Augusta

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Augusta, Ga. (P) — Jackie Burke Jr. is a steel-eyed Texas who laughs at the jinx that Masters champions never repeat.

"I don't let that stuff bother me," the boyish-looking 34-year-old Houston professional said after shooting the only sub-par round — a 71 — of the 101 stars who took a crack at the Augusta National course yesterday.

The score was the highest ever to lead the Masters on opening day.

Today Burke tries to defend his slender lead — one stroke over five players, two strokes over eight others and only three ahead of another 13 — but it's sure these challengers never faced a cooler calculator.

Closest on Jackie's heels were two menacing young Australians, British Open champion Peter Thomson and Bruce Crampton; Jimmy Demaret of Kiamesha Lake, N. Y., and Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., each seeking his fourth Masters title; and the old workhorse of the pro tour, Doug Ford of Mahopac, N. Y., former champion of the Professional Golfers Association and the year's leading money winner. All had par 72s.

Tied at 73 were Britain's Henry Cotton, Canada's Al Balding, Ed Furgol, Arnold Palmer, Jerry Barber, Skeet Riegel and Bud Ward — and the reigning national amateur champion, Harvie Ward Jr. of San Francisco.

Speaking Of Sports ---

Walt Askins, former Strong Vincent basketball star, proved himself one of this area's top collegiate bucketeers this year when he scored an average of 26.1 points per game for Edinboro State Teachers College Red Raiders.

Askins began the season with a quick start, scoring 26 points in his first college game against Gannon, though Edinboro came out on the short end of a 104-81 game.

In mid-season Askins injured his ankle in a game against Thiel and his scoring was cut to 12 points. Next game against California State Teachers he was only able to play half the game, scored only 14 points. His ankle kept him from being able to jump, for his outstanding work at the bank-board.

In the second Slippery Rock game Askins was guarded by a 6-4 opponent constantly. Askins scored 32 points, all the guard was able to do was shake his head as hook shots flew over his head into the basket.

Slippery Rock coach, Bob Smiley said "In all my years of basketball, I have never seen a shot like that. That boy must have had a basketball hoop in his back yard."

Actually, Askins developed his unique hook shot playing in the Erie Sunday School League during the 1955-56 season. His First Baptist Church team was undefeated and he was high scorer.

Walt was a 10-letter man at Strong Vincent, earning letters in track, cross country and basketball. His scoring record this basketball season has been:

Grove City 26; Allegheny 22; Thiel 12; California 14; Slippery Rock 33; Grove City 17; Gannon 24; Clarion 31; Fredonia 33; Thiel 14; California 35; Allegheny 25; Fredonia 25; Alliance 23; Penn 30; Slippery Rock 32; Clarion 36; Alliance 37; and Gannon 27.

Walt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Askins, 406 W. 4th Street, Erie, Pennsylvania.

The 6-foot, 3 1/2-inch freshman, using a spectacular hook shot from the corner, racked up 496 points over the season, chalking the most with 37 against Alliance. Twice the 36 mark was posted, 35 once, 33 twice, 30 once.

The Lafayette College track team coached by Harold Anson Bruce after a lapse of 32 years, will open its season next Saturday in a dual meet with Temple.

Bruce, who coached Lafayette teams 1909 to 1925, returned this year as interim coach of the Maroon while Arthur R. Winters, regular coach, is on leave of absence in Iran.

Also opening their season next week will be the Lafayette tennis and golf teams. The tennis team will meet Franklin and Marshall in the opener at Lancaster Tuesday, Scranton here Wednesday, and Bucknell at Lewisburg Saturday.

The golf team will open with Swarthmore here Tuesday and meet Bucknell at Lewisburg Thursday.

So far in the exhibition games, Virdon has been hitting at a .412 clip.

Stocked Brook Trout Do Not Survive Winter, Tests Show

Stocked brook trout don't survive winter weather.

That is the result of a 5-stream shock treatment survey conducted in this area during three days in February. It agrees with other brook trout "wintering-over" tests conducted elsewhere which found that only from 5 percent to zero percent live through the cold.

In the five area streams "shocked" only 3 brook trout were found. This is an unfavorable result when it is considered that 13,060 brook trout were stocked. Of these, only an estimated 6,530 found their way into creeks.

Streams given the electro-shock treatment were Four Mile and Six Mile Runs in Warren County, Chappel Fork, Mead Run and Lewis Run in McKean County.

Lewis Run was tested from the bridge on Route 219 one-half mile below Kennedy Springs. Ten brown trout, ranging in size from 3.5 to 17 inches (3 ten inches, one 17) were found, and rough fish collected were: white sucker, blacknose dace, sculpin.

Four Mile Run: tested various points upstream. 8 brown trout found, ranging from 4.5 to 18.5 inches (2nd largest 12 inches) rough fish, rainbow darter, johnny darter, sculpin, white sucker, hog sucker, northern creek chub and western blacknose dace.

Six Mile Run: various upstream points, distance two miles; 20 brown trout collected, evenly spaced from 2.5 inches in length to 14 inches; rough fish, sculpin, blacknose dace, creek northern chub, white sucker, longnose dace, northern creek chub, fantail darter, johnny darter, banded darter, central stoneroller, hog sucker.

Chappel Fork: shocked from mouth to headwaters at various points, distance 11 miles; 3 brook trout found, all five inches long; 8 brown trout found, 3.5 inches to 7.2 inches; rough fish collected, blacknose dace, northern creek chub, stoneroller minnow, creek northern chub, bluntnose minnow, hog sucker and white sucker.

Chappel Fork was selected by the aquatic biologist who directed the survey for creel census work in 1957. All brook trout stocked in

Jamestown Falcons Open Season Three Weeks From Today

Jamestown Sun: Plans for a gala welcoming of the Jamestown Falcons, currently wrapped in the rigors of spring training at Jacksonville Beach, Fla., were announced along with the 1957 playing schedule, Thursday night, by General Manager Ted Glarrow.

The Falcons will open their 126-game schedule at 6:30 p. m. Saturday, April 27 with a home game against the Erie Senators and then meet the same Senators in Erie on the following day. Playing an identical 68 games both home and away, the Falks will close out their home season with a three game stand against the Batavia Clippers.

Jerry Kline, veteran Falcon bus driver now visiting the Detroit proving grounds at Tigard, Ore., informed Glarrow he will be ready to bring the boys home to Jamestown on schedule, April 22. A three-day drive will put the Flock in Jamestown on the Wednesday before the season opening. The club was scheduled to leave April 20. Glarrow stated, but the date was set back to allow the players to spend Easter Sunday in Florida.

A luncheon has been planned for the Birds the day following their arrival, and in the tradition of past years, area fans will be given a first-hand opportunity to meet the boys who will carry the Jamestown banner through the 1957 PONY League season on April 26. The Meet The Falcons Night will be staged at Municipal Stadium, and Glarrow extended an open invitation to Jamestown baseball fans to come to the Stadium and meet our new ball club.

Working with Joseph Boccardy, aquatic biologist for Fish and Wildlife Service in Allegheny National Forest, and Warden Kenneth Corey on the test was Roger J. Reed, Regional Fishery Manager who compiled the above report.

Roberts Scores A 1 to 0 Win Over New York Yankees

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Robin Roberts, trim, fit and doing things with a curve, looks ready to get back into that old 20-victory rut again. No more piddlin' 19-victory seasons for Robin.

The big, control-conscious right-hander, a basic reason for the Philadelphia Phillies being in or near the National League's first division for seven seasons, appears at ease again on the mound.

The 30-year-old veteran, troubled by a back ailment last year, gave the New York Yankees a look at the best pitching they've seen this spring yesterday. It wasn't until after Robin left for a pinch-hitter that the world champions managed to gain a 1-0 victory.

Elsewhere, Brooklyn battered Milwaukee 14-8; Chicago's White Sox nipped the Boston Red Sox 6-5 in 11 innings; the St. Louis Cardinals defeated Detroit 5-4; Pittsburgh's singles beat Kansas City 4-3; Cincinnati rallied to defeat Washington 5-4 in 10; the New York Giants halted Cleveland's winning streak at six games 9-6, and Baltimore walloped Chicago's Cubs 18-5.

TODAY is pay day for all who have classified ads.

Grayson's Scoreboard

NEW YORK—(NEA)—James D. Norris usually can be found around his awesome diggings in Coral Gables, Fla., or Nassau Shores, Long Island, or any of the town houses he keeps in New York and Chicago. Jim Norris, who promotes fights, among numerous other things, is loaded.

Constantine D'Amato lives in a room some place in the Bronx. When he isn't there, you find Cus D'Amato in a dusty, scarred gymnasium office, along with his dog and a pay telephone, on New York's East 14th Street. D'Amato admits to being in hock for $25,000.

Yet, and as incredible as it may seem, D'Amato and Big Jim Norris are too busy ducking one another to make a heavyweight championship match. That's why you have heard so little of Floyd Patterson, who promised to do so much for boxing when he so quickly belted out ancient Archie Moore last Nov. 30.

D'AMATO COULDN'T GET fights at the International Boxing Club before he had the heavyweight champion. And Patterson winning the title didn't change things a bit. That's Manager D'Amato's squawk, and it's giving Norris more headaches than the federal court decision riling the IBC a monopoly.

Norris has a return match between Patterson and Hurricane Tommy Jackson penciled in for June, but there has been no discussion of terms with D'Amato. The promoter and manager have been too busy giving each other the busy signal.

ASKED IF NORRIS attempted to contact him on his more recent stay in New York from the Gulfstream race track, D'Amato replied that he did not know.

"A year ago, when I closed for the Patterson-Jackson match of last June, I told Norris that Patterson would box for no other promoter as long as I was treated fairly by the IBC. By being treated fairly I meant work for the other boys in my stable. How can I develop fighters if I can't get matches?"

"We shook hands and Norris assured me that my fighters would be given work. Do you know how many preliminary fights I've had since? Well, I'll tell you—all of three. Meanwhile, numerous other fighters have had as many as five."

D'AMATO AT FIRST BLAMED Billy Brown for the lack of employment, but after appealing to Norris again and again, he decided that the IBC's New York matchmaker was doing only what he was told.

"Once when I bumped into Norris at the IBC offices in Madison Square Garden, he turned to Brown and said, 'Now you take care of Cus.' Brown said he would, but nothing happened. When my back was turned, Norris probably gave Brown the wink."

Asked what he would do if Norris refused to come to him, D'Amato replied that he could wait as long as the promoter.

"But Norris will come," the white-thatched, square-jawed manager assured the reporter. "He came to me before Patterson was champion. He has to come again now that Floyd is the champion."

Cus D'Amato, it appears, will match Floyd Patterson with any of Jim Norris' house fighters, but only on his own terms.

And next time, he'll insist upon a guaranteed number of appearances for his preliminary fighters.

Much of the nation can expect to be chilly from now until May, with a great portion experiencing below-normal temperatures for the period. Texas and portions of Oklahoma and New Mexico will do the most shivering.

When the Orchestra appears at Beaty next Wednesday night for the benefit of the local swimming pool fund and the youth canteen, it will be led by one of the foremost conductors of our time, William Steinberg.

The union of Steinberg with the Pittsburgh Symphony has been happy and productive. He is a man of medium height and weight, bald on top and has small piercing but numerous black eyes. Now an American citizen, he was born in Cologne in 1899 as a violinist at ten a virtuoso pianist at fifteen, and a prize winner in conducting at nineteen.

He followed the path of most European conductors from opera house to opera house, setting in Frankfurt in 1929. In 1936 he went to Palestine to reorganize the Palestine Symphony, and there he met Arturo Toscanini who became his great friend and sponsor. He came to America in 1938 and, at Toscanini's invitation, became associate conductor of the NBC Symphony in 1938. Most major American orchestras saw him at one time or another, and he has also been associated with the San Francisco Opera since 1944.

Former County Woman Held on Larceny Charge

A 23-year-old woman, who gives her address as Oakview Park, Warren, is in Chautauque County jail at Mayville N. Y. this afternoon awaiting Grand Jury action on a grand larceny charge filed against her Wednesday night in Jamestown.

The woman identified as Shirley A. Ziemer of Route 1, Warren who formerly occupied a cabin at Oakview Park, is accused of taking $215 from the purse of another woman while both were in the rest room of a Jamestown restaurant Wednesday night. All of the money was recovered by police except for $5.

Yesterday the case was adjourned when Mrs. Ziemer asked for legal counsel. Today in Jamestown City Court she said she did not want an attorney after all and was sent to Mayville in lieu of $1,000 cash bail or $2,000 property bail.

conditions such as odors from exposed mud flats. In his second reply to Clark's query, Person said that while studies of power potentialities of the Allegheny reservoir have not yet been completed, "present information indicates that hydroelectric power is not justified at this time."

But, the engineering officer added, "In any event, the dam when built will at least include minimum facilities necessary to permit some future power development."

The dam is the last major project in a series begun some years ago in Western Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia to avert such catastrophic floods as the 1936 deluge in Western Pennsylvania.

Person's letter noted that the 1936 flood was the worst in history in that area. Others in order of their magnitude, Person said, were in 1763, 1762, 1907 and 1832. "About 130,000 people now live in the area flooded in 1936, at which time 36 lives" were lost," Person said.

He said a lesser flood occurred during March of last year, and added: "Had the Allegheny reservoir been in operation during that flood it would have prevented flood damages estimated at $4,500,000."

Idlewood Airport Will Have Huge 'Umbrella'

New York (AP)—Pan American World Airways plans to build a huge "umbrella" to protect passengers boarding its planes in bad weather at New York International Airport at Idlewild, Queens.

The "umbrella," supported by 32 piers will be an extension of the roof of the new terminal and built over the aircraft parking space. Planes will be boarded from the terminal's second-floor passenger lounge.

The roof extension will accommodate six huge jet airliners. In addition to providing cover, the extension, with its raised gangway, will eliminate the necessity of passengers dodging maintenance carts.

DOUBLE HIT-AND-RUN

New York (AP)—An unidentified man was killed last night when struck almost simultaneously by two hit-and-run drivers on a Manhattan street. A witness told police the driver of the first car did not even slow down. The driver of the second car stopped sharply, got out, looked at the body, shouted to onlookers "It wasn't my fault," and drove on.

More Testimony of Influencer. Uses on Board of Pardons

Harrisburg, April 5 (AP)—A Democratic member of the legislative committee probing the State Pardon Board said today he once talked with the board chairman relative to a scheduled clemency hearing.

"I talked to Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman one time and explained the family difficulties brought to bear on a Northampton County family because of a man being in prison," said Sen. Joseph J. Yonko of Northampton.

Yonko mentioned the prison inmate as Steven S. Terlesky, serving from two to four years on a charge of fraudulent conversion. During testimony yesterday it was learned that Rep. Francis E. Walter (D-Pa.) wrote a letter to the board asking that favorable consideration be given Terlesky's case when it came before the board. The board rejected the appeal last year.

Lions Club Members Complete Plans For Bulb Sale Campaign

The Warren Lions Club has completed plans for this year's bulb sale campaign. The committee in charge this year consists of Lions Herbert Diller, Ed MacKenzie, John Kinn, and John Kinn. The entire Lions Club has been divided into three teams, each team having a team captain. The team captains for this year are Lions James Nor-dine, Myron Jewell, and G. McKinnley. Warren has been divided into three districts and each team will cover a designated district.

Unfortunately last year some areas were missed. Plans have been made to have enough bulbs and take enough time to cover Warren completely. The sale will be held on Saturday, April 13th. The bag of bulbs will consist of 4-60 watt, 2-75 watt, 2-100 watt, and 1-75 watt soft lite bulbs. Each bag will sell for the price of $2.00.

On Friday evening, April 12th from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. Lions members will sell bulbs at the following super-markets: A & P, N.W. Way, and Loblaw's. These stores have kindly given the Lions Club enough floor space to sell the bulbs. The store arrangements have been made for the convenience of the people outside of Warren or anyone who wishes to purchase bulbs at one of these three stores.

The newly formed Pinegrove Township Lions Club sponsored by the Warren Lions Club is also planning a bag of bulbs sale. This is their first community project and needs the support of everyone in the Pinegrove area. The two clubs jointly bagged the bulbs on Thursday evening in the garage.

at the rear of the Peterson Funeral Home.

The Lions members will be identified by a prominent "Lion" hatband said. The Lions urge everyone to support this bulb sale campaign. The proceeds will go toward the Lions Activities Fund for the many endeavors of the Lions Club.

BACK PAY FOR BURGESS

West Conshohocken, Pa.—Harry F. Mosman has been burgess, or mayor, of West Conshohocken for 18 years and has always managed to "fight off" efforts of the Borough Council to pay him a salary. He says his only interest is "work for the borough and its people." The other night the Council again voted him a salary. At long last, Mosman gave in, saying "Well, if you insist. He'll get $120 a year, retroactive to Jan. 1.

Additional Plane May Be Purchased By Aviation Club

Richard Huckabone, treasurer of the Warren Aviation Club, announced at the April meeting that, due to the steady and encouraging increase of membership, they are getting closer to the purchase of an additional airplane. The Club at this time has an Aeroeca AC7 which is used by both student and private pilots. A set of books has been purchased by the club for the use of student pilots.

"Wings For An Angler" by the Piper Aircraft Corp. was shown. This film starts with the purchase of an airplane on floats by an ardent angler. Within five weeks he has his private pilot's license and is on his way over New England and Canada to Newfoundland for salmon and trout fishing. The scenes of the hooking, playing and landing of a 6-lb. trout and a 30-lb. salmon within wading distance of the aircraft showed how ideal this plane is for finding and landing on the various isolated pools and streams where the fish are large in quantity and size.

Jack Lesser showed films he took while he was with a fighter escort squadron on Okinawa and Japan. Scenes of Naha, the escorting of B29s, the ruggedness of some of the heavily fought over ridges of Okinawa, the inside of an Okinawan house and the beauty of Mount Fujiyama, with clouds at the base and blue sky above, were of interest to all.

Club members were also shown pictures of their airplane in flight and the beauty of Warren and North Warren from the air, thanks to Mr. Dyke and Mr. Barron. Visitors at the meeting were George Probst, Gene Lillie, Frank Fago and John Wolf.

Chairman of the clinic is H. Tom Morris, Bradford, treasurer of the Bradford Motor Works and a member of the board of directors of Pennsylvania United Fund.

BLIZZARD, TORNADOS STRIKE—Shaded area on news-map indicates the sweep of a spring blizzard which dumped an official 16 inches of snow on Denver, Colo., and unofficial reports of up to four feet on the ground in the heaviest late snow in a score of years. Tornado symbols in Texas and Oklahoma locate area where several twisters took at least 16 lives, 10 of them in the devastated city of Dallas.

THIS IS SPRING?—Albin Mattson, 13, left, and Leonard Smith, 12, found that 12 inches of spring snow in Denver, Colo., makes bike riding a little difficult, so they picked it up and carried it. The second great spring storm in 10 days stranded thousands of motorists and isolated scores of communities in the Rocky Mountains and the Great Plains.
